To take advantage of HyperMotion, players must have a motion capture suit (available for PC and Xbox One) equipped with a PlayStation VR headset on top. The player has the ability to move naturally in their preferred style with the PSVR headset turning into a virtual armour suit. Gupta commented that in the motion capture game "you don't feel the player, rather you feel the action." "In FIFA 20 we were able to get rid of the smacking sensation associated with player traits," Ledwaba told IGN. "We stripped players to the bare minimum and this is why, for example, when your defender commits a foul, he might be dragging his heels in the air. "When playing an innovative game, you should expect any outcome. Your defender could continue to drag his heels, or he could catch the ball and fly through the air. We wanted
